

JUSTICE BREWER'S WILL FILED FOR PROBATE

Home on 16th Street Left to Widow,
Insurance to Daughters.
Other Bequests.

The will of David J. Brewer, late associate justice of the United States Supreme Court, dated October 25, 1898, with a codicil executed March 7, 1908, has been filed for probate. No estimate of the value of the estate has yet been filed.

Premises at 1923 16th street northwest are devised to his widow, Mrs. Emma M. Brewer, and a cottage at Thompsons Point, with its contents, is left to his three daughters, Mrs. Harriet B. Jettmore, Mrs. Henrietta B. Karkick and Mrs. Elizabeth B. Wells.

The daughters are also to divide equally $10,000 insurance, which had been made payable to the first wife of the justice. All the furniture in his home is left to the widow, and the remaining personal estate to the three daughters in equal shares.

The widow and James L. Karkick, his son-in-law, are named as executors. By the codicil the gold watch presented to Justice Brewer by the lawyers of Leavenworth county is given to his grandson, David Brewer Karkick, and a watch given by his wife to her grandnephew, David Brewer Hall. A ring given him by his first wife and which he always wore on his little finger is left to his grandson, David Brewer Jettmore. His books and writings are to go to his daughter, Mrs. Karkick, with the exception of a Bible presented by his first wife, which goes to his granddaughter, Hannah L. Jettmore. Each of his other grandchildren is to select some keepsake from his personal property.

WOMEN TRY TO DROWN MAN WHO BEAT WIFE

Policeman, After Struggle, Rescues
Pennsylvanian Whom Neighbors
Dragged in Direction of Creek.

CLIFTON HEIGHTS, Pa., April 6.—The timely arrival yesterday of Policeman John Leighton of the Upper Darby police department, probably saved the life of John Mundy of Upper Darby Township, who was being dragged to the Darby creek by a number of women, who were going to drown him, they said, for beating his wife.

Mundy, it is said, had been on a spree and abused his wife and children, driving them out of the house. The wife screamed for help and the women in the neighborhood quickly ran to the Darby creek, where they found Mundy being dragged by a number of women, who were going to drown him, they said, for beating his wife.

His plea was ignored by the women, who started to drag him to the creek just as the policeman arrived.

Leighton rescued Mundy with difficulty, the women pleading that they be allowed to drown their victim. Instead, the officer took Mundy to the office of Squire Clifton, in Clifton Heights, who held the defendant in the sum of $400 bail for court on the charge of wife beating.

DOGS CATCH MURDERER WHO BROKE FROM JAIL

Condemned Negro Fatally Shot
After a Chase of Twenty-Four Hours.

NORFOLK, Va., April 6.—Thomas Noel, one of the condemned negroes who escaped from the Norfolk county jail March 30, was captured in Drummonds woods on the outskirts of Norfolk at 5 a.m. today after having been chased continuously for twenty-four hours, with bloodhounds on his trail during half the time.

Before being taken Noel was shot through the stomach with a pistol and a load of buckshot was also put in his body. He is dying from his injuries.

Noel was condemned to death for the murder of Deputy Sheriff Stokes of Norfolk county, when the latter sought to arrest him for robbery.

Elijah Rouse, the other condemned negro who escaped with Noel, was caught two days later. He will be electrocuted at Richmond April 25. A reward of $1,000 had been offered for the capture of the two murderers, $500 by the state of Virginia and $500 by Sheriff Cromwell of Norfolk county.

MARITAL DIFFICULTIES OF MILLERS SETTLED

Wife of Standard Oil Man Accepts
$500,000, Agreeing to Drop
Divorce Suit.

NEW YORK, April 6.—The marital warfare between Gen. Charles F. Miller, the wealthy Standard Oil man of Franklin, Pa., and his wife, Emma Bullen Miller, is at an end.

Mrs. Miller has accepted $500,000 from her husband, and has shaken the dust of New York from her feet. She is supposed to have joined members of her family in Ohio. The money was given to Mrs. Miller, one of her friends said yesterday, upon her agreement to live away from Gen. Miller and withdraw her suit for divorce.

In addition to the half million, Mrs. Miller has received from her husband assurances that he will drop his suit against her. The preliminary hearing in the suit and countersuit was to have been on April 25. Maurice B. Dean of 29 Broadway, Mrs. Miller's attorney, said yesterday he would not discuss the case, except to admit that the troubles of the Millers were ended as far as he was concerned.

For some months Mrs. Miller had been dodging the general's process servers, flitting about in New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio to do it. Recently she joined the "New Name" cult, which is headed by Mrs. Aso Neith Nyspe Cochran. The idea of the members of this cult is that persons are not usually named according to their new characteristics, and that they should have new names to suit them. Mrs. Cochran, when seen, said she did not know what Mrs. Miller's new name would be.

PROBING WINDOW GLASS TRUST Special Federal Grand Jury Is Tak- ing Testimony in Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, April 6.—The special Federal grand jury in session to hear evidence in support of the government claim that the Imperial Window Glass Company is a combination in restraint of trade, today had A. C. Hannan, secretary of the Whole Duty and Picture Dealers' Association of Chicago before them, continuing his testimony of last yesterday.

He said the present investigation be successfully prosecuted by the government, other investigations of corporations in western Pennsylvania alleged to be combinations in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law will be instituted.
